The Department of Biological Science at Rutgers-Newark and the Rutgers School of Health Related Professions (Rutgers-SHRP) offer a joint Bachelor of Science degree in Medical Imaging Sciences. Students choose one of the four programs: Cardiac Sonography, Diagnostic Medical Sonography, Nuclear Medicine or Vascular Technology. Students graduating with degrees in MIS become members of health care teams contributing to the diagnosis and treatment of disease. MIS majors are readily employed in a variety of health care, industrial, governmental, and educational settings.

Medical Imaging Sciences majors complete their prerequisite science and math courses at Rutgers-Newark. They then apply to Rutgers-SHRP in January for admission in September into one of four 15-month programs. Admissions are competitive and so not guaranteed. Minimum admissions requirements include an overall GPA of 2.75, with grades of C or better in all pre-requisite science courses taken at Rutgers-Newark. Students who transfer into Rutgers-Newark must complete at least half their biology credits at Rutgers-Newark to qualify for the joint degree program.
