PALS PROGRAM

- Intensive English Program: 6 proficiency levels (Beginner to Advanced)
- Advanced Academic Program
- IETLS Preparation Program
- TOEFL Preparation Program

Class Schedule: Schedules are provided to students on the day of orientation.

Class Hours: Courses are offered from 8:30 am to 3:50 pm. Schedules may vary each session.

The Intensive English Program Description

This is PALS' core program—immersion English language study designed to expose students to all the skills necessary to develop and improve their ability and confidence in speaking, listening, reading, and writing English. Students take these courses with a variety of intentions: to enter an American university, to improve their job opportunities, to study toward or work in an international career, and more. The Intensive ESL Program is offered over six sessions per academic year (September–August), with each session lasting seven weeks.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

A. Intensive English Program: Core Courses

1. Grammar: PALS Grammar course is taught using the communicative approach and focus on using grammar to communicate. PALS teachers use implicit and explicit approaches to teach grammar and provide students with a variety of controlled and open exercises. Students learn both the grammar of conversation and writing and receive abundant feedback throughout each session. (3 hours per week)

2. Listening & Speaking: PALS Listening & Speaking course provides students with strategies for understanding and responding to conversations and academic content using strategies for inference, topic recognition, distinguishing main ideas from details, note-taking, and using graphic organizers. These strategies assist them in developing speaking skills that help with effective communication in interviews, conversations, presentations, and academic discussions. Students work on building fluency, accuracy and complexity in their communication. Students frequently make recordings online, which are assessed by their peers and instructors. (6 hours per week)

3. Reading: PALS Reading course provides students with strategies for understanding and responding to text types from a variety of genres, including fiction and non-fiction, such as newspapers, magazines, and academic textbooks. Students also study the most frequent 2000 words, academic words and common idiomatic expressions, while learning strategies for remembering new vocabulary. (3 hours per week)
4. Writing: PALS Writing course takes the student step-by-step through the writing process, from formulating ideas through revision. They learn to organize ideas, use correct form and punctuation, use coherent structure, edit and revise. In addition to paragraph and essay writing, students explore writing in other genres, such as newspaper articles, blogging, micro blogging, resume and cover letter writing, as well as, journaling. (6 hours per week)

B. Electives:

1. Accent Reduction: This course is designed to improve each individual’s student’s accent so the student will be understood anywhere and in particular in academic settings. Ample practice in speaking and listening is offered to facilitate their improvement. This course is offered to Intermediate, Advanced and Advanced Academic Program levels. (3 hours per week)

2. American Culture: This course is designed to give new international students insights into what makes this country unique. This course will help students become familiar with cultural differences and difficulties. Understanding the American ways will be discussed. Tips on how to live and thrive here will be addressed. This is a 7-week course that will meet 3 hours a week. It is offered to the Beginner, Basic and Low Intermediate levels. (3 hours per week)

3. Business English: The Business English course will give students a solid foundation and working knowledge of business English. Various aspects of business will be covered. This course is offered to Intermediate and Advanced level students who wish to increase their business terminology. This is a 7-week elective course that meets three hours each week. (3 hours per week)

4. Idioms: This course teaches the meaning and proper use of commonly used idioms. Idioms add deeper meaning to any language. Idioms are phrases that have different meanings from the literal meaning. These are not understood easily. This course is essential for anyone who wants to intermingle with native English speakers. This course is offered to Intermediate, Advance, High Advanced, and Advanced Academic Program levels. (3 hours per week)

5. Medical English: The Medical English course is designed to focus on medical terminology and abbreviations that are needed by medical professionals. This course is offered to the Intermediate and Advanced level students who are interested in the medical fields. This is a 7-week elective course that meets three hours each week. (3 hours per week)

6. Speaking Clearly: This course is designed to improve the students’ pronunciation so that they can be understood more clearly. Listening to various North American accents is also part of the course to enable students to better understand people in everyday interactions. This is offered to Beginner, Basic and Low Intermediate levels. (3 hours per week)

7. S.T.E.M. Vocabulary: S.T.E.M. is an acronym that is used worldwide for Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics. This course will help the student gain vocabulary that is directly related to these fields. This is a 7-week course that will meet twice a week for a total of 3 hours per week. This course is offered to the Intermediate and Advanced level students. (3 hours per week)
8. Study Skills: This course is designed to provide students in the entry levels with practical strategies that will help them better develop their study skills and achieve greater academic success. These skills can then be applied to academic coursework. The course is designed to be hands-on and will require students to use technology. (3 hours per week)

9. University Bound Workshop: This course helps the student to learn how to apply to universities and colleges. How to find and apply to various colleges and universities is a main focus of this course. This course will help students to improve their chances to get into the program they want. The students will learn what universities are looking for and how to write an essay as an authentic candidate to improve her/his chances with universities’ admissions’ departments. This is a 7-week course that meets for 3 hours each week. It is offered to High Intermediate and Advanced level students. (3 hours per week)

C. Exam Preparation Courses:

1. Introduction to IELTS (The International English Language Testing System): This is designed to measure the language ability of candidates who want to work or study where English is the language of communication. This course helps students to become familiar with the format of the exam and how to best take the exam to score the best they can. Attendance Policy: PALS students are expected to attend all scheduled class meetings. After the first two absences, one letter grade is deducted for each absence. Two late arrivals/early departures are equivalent to one absence. After five absences, the student is given an automatic F and must repeat the course.

Doctor and legal appointments should be scheduled outside of class time. Only serious medical emergencies will be considered as excused absences.

F-1 students: F-1 students must present written documentation in the form of a doctor’s note, court document, or some such certified document.

Academic Policies:

1. Academic Probation
   - Any student who fails to pass a course after 2 attempts is automatically placed on probation and must move down an academic level for that course.
   - Any student who has more than 2 unexcused absences per class in 3 or more courses per session may be placed on academic probation.
   - Any student who earns 3 or more failing grades (D or F) per session is automatically on academic probation.

2. Academic Dismissal
   - Once on probation for earning 3 or more failing grades, students have one additional session to improve their GPA; otherwise, they may be dismissed from the program.
   - Any student on academic probation due to attendance who has more than 2 unexcused absences may be dismissed and may have their visa terminated.
   - Any student who plagiarizes while on probation may be subject to dismissal.

Plagiarism Policy: PALS upholds all Rutgers University ethical standards related to academic integrity, including plagiarism. Students who are caught plagiarizing may be expelled from PALS. For Rutgers Policy on Academic Integrity, please see: http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu/academic-integrity-at-rutgers/
DISMISSAL POLICY: Students may also be dismissed from the Program in American Language Studies due to:

- Improper conduct, including, but not limited to: terrorist threats, physical violence, exceedingly and/or continuously disruptive behavior, and discriminatory remarks based on race, gender, religion, and sexual preference.

WITHDRAWALS: Written notification is the only official means of withdrawal from PALS. Students must notify the PALS Office in writing of the reason for withdrawal. The date the PALS Office receives such written notice shall be considered the date of withdrawal. Students who stop attending class without officially withdrawing may earn an F.

FAILURE TO REPORT: A student who does not report for the PALS session for which he/she has registered has 2 weeks following the start of the session to contact the PALS Office to submit his/her written withdrawal from that session and has the opportunity to register with the same tuition immediately in the following session. After 2 weeks, the student has to register again and pay full tuition and the pertinent fees. If the student does not submit a written withdrawal and reserve the right to continue in the session immediately following, he/she will not receive any refund.

REFUNDS AND DEPOSITS: Students who withdraw three business days prior to the first day of class will receive a full refund minus the application fee and placement exam fee. Students who withdraw days 1 to 5 of the session will receive a refund of 50%, minus the application fee and the placement exam fee. Students who withdraw after day 5 will not receive any refund.

Transfer requests must be received in writing. Tuition cannot be transferred from one student to another.

STUDENT (F-1) VISA

Keep in mind that the I-20 does not automatically grant you the F-1 Visa. You MUST schedule an interview with the U.S. embassy in your home country to obtain the student visa. A student who does not report for a PALS session because he/she has been denied a student (F-1) visa has 4 weeks to notify the PALS Office. If the student does not notify the office within 4 weeks, the student has to apply again with payment of application and processing fees. Application and processing fees are non-refundable.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR F-1 Visa HOLDERS / APPLICANTS:

1. You must attend classes.
2. You must study a minimum of 21 hours per week
3. All F-1 students, spouses and dependent children are required to purchase Rutgers student health insurance.

I have read and understand the above Academic Policies. I agree to adhere to all Rutgers University and Program in American Language Studies policies and procedures governing students, including, but not limited to, the University Code of Student Conduct, the Academic Integrity Policy, and all policies outlined in the RU-Newark Undergraduate Catalog: http://catalogs.rutgers.edu/generated/nwk-ug_0608/pg23578.html

I understand that decisions regarding visas and immigration status are made by the U.S. Government. I understand registration in the Program in American Language Studies (Newark Campus) does not imply acceptance into any other divisions of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey.

HOUSING INFORMATION

Students must make their own arrangements for housing. This should be done BEFORE school begins. Listed below are some possibilities for you to consider. Please remember that PALS DOES NOT ARRANGE HOUSING. You must contact these places yourself.

I. On-Campus Housing: Talbott Apartments and Woodward Hall

There is no guarantee that you will be given a room on campus. However, questions about housing, or to get an application for a room in the dormitories, should be directed to:

Office of Housing & Residence Life
Woodward Hall
91 Bleeker Street, 1st Floor
Newark, New Jersey 07102 USA

Telephone: (973) 353-1037  E-mail: reslife@newark.rutgers.edu
Fax: (973) 353-1032  Internet: http://housing.newark.rutgers.edu

IMPORTANT: Be sure to tell them that you are a PALS student.

II. Off-Campus Housing

If you want to live off-campus, you must come to Newark early to find a place to live. Good, inexpensive housing is not very easy to find. Apartments may be found through the newspaper ads, the campus bulletin boards, or the listings at the Rutgers-Newark Housing Office. (See above)

For short-term stay:

- Hampton Inn & Suites Newark/Riverwalk
  100 Passaic Ave, Harrison, New Jersey 07029 USA
  Telephone: (973) 483-1900 / Fax: (973) 483-1999
  Website: http://www.hamptoninnandsuitesnewark.com
  - Located less than 1.5 miles from Rutgers Campus!
  - Complimentary hotel shuttle service from Newark Liberty International Airport, Penn Station, and Harrison PATH station.

- YMWCA
  The Y is located three short blocks from Rutgers University. For room information visit their website - http://www.newarkymca.org/lodging.cfm
  YMWCA
  600 Broad Street
  Newark, New Jersey 07102 USA
  Telephone: (973) 624-8900 ext. 6856 /
  Email: info@newarkymca.org

Getting a suitable place to live requires planning and work before you begin studies. This will help make your stay in the U.S. a pleasant learning experience.
