THE HOLOCAUST AND ITS LEGACIES IN SCANDINAVIA: RESEARCH AND EDUCATION

Tuesday May 1, 2012
10:00am to 1:00pm
Engelhard Hall 100
Symposium

Chair, Anton Weiss-Wendt
(Center for the Study of the Holocaust and Religious Minorities, Oslo)

The Challenge of Combining Research with the Classroom:
Raoul Wallenberg and Other Swedish Cases
Paul A. Levine (Hugo Valentin Center, Uppsala University)

Himmler’s Briefcase: Finland and the Holocaust
Oula Silvennoinen (Centre for Nordic Studies, University of Helsinki)

From a Sentence in a Book to a Field of Research:
Developments in Holocaust Research and Education in Norway
Øivind Kopperud (Center for the Study of the Holocaust and Religious Minorities, Oslo)

Holocaust Education in Denmark:
Between Research and Memory Politics
Cecilie F. Stokholm Banke
(Holocaust and Genocide Program, Danish Center for International Studies, Copenhagen)

Discussant, Karin Kvist Geverts (History, Uppsala University)

Co-sponsored by the Nordic Dutch Network of Genocide Studies, Institute for the Study of Genocide, and the Center for Peace, Justice, and Reconciliation at Bergen Community College. The event is also made possible by the generous support of the American-Scandinavian Foundation and the Rutgers-Newark Alumni Association.